- Perform continuous safety scans and respond quickly in emergencies
- Maintain cleanliness and safety standards in the pool area
- Work effectively both as a leader and as part of a team
- Carry out daily operational and facility-related tasks

What You Bring

- Valid National Lifeguard Certification
- Valid Standard First Aid & CPR Certification
- Swim Instructor Certification (asset)
- Good physical condition and readiness to respond in emergencies
- Strong communication skills and a friendly, professional approach
- Bilingual skills considered an asset

Why Join Us?

- Competitive wage: $17.25 per hour ($17.75 per hour as of October 1st)
- Flexible part-time hours: 15–30 hours per week
- A fun, team-oriented work environment
- Opportunity to develop leadership skills and build your aquatics career

How to Apply:

Applicants are invited to email a confidential resume, ensuring to include "Lifeguard" in the subject line of your email, to:
